

Bhartiya Group organized an evening in which author William Dalrymple took the audience on an enthralling journey of the Kohinoor diamond

The writer-historian presented stories, facts and images inspired from the book Kohinoor: The Story of the World's Most Infamous Diamond, co-authored by Anita Anand

New Delhi, 28th April 2017: Bhartiya, a diversified lifestyle group, held an enchanting evening to take audience through the riveting journey of Kohinoor, the world's most infamous diamond.

This is the second such program organized by the Bhartiya Group which aims at curating events related to history and literature that push the boundaries of public engagement.

Mr. Snehdeep Aggarwal, Founder and Chairman of the Bhartiya Group, remarked "We, at Bhartiya, have always aimed to create innovative products and experiences which add value and happiness to people's lives. We lead such busy lives that intellectual pursuits as well as our interests often get sidelined. This is one of the main reasons why we decided to host an evening dedicated to history and literature."

The event took place at The Leela Palace, Chanakyapuri New Delhi on 28th April 7:30 pm onwards. The evening saw over 300 dignitaries in attendance including senior diplomats as well as partners of Bhartiya Group from around the globe.

Bhartiya group was founded in 1987. It consists of two verticals: Bhartiya Fashion and Bhartiya Urban. Bhartiya Fashion is India's leading exporter of leather garments & accessories. Bhartiya Urban is developing Bhartiya City in Bengaluru, a 125 acre integrated urban township within the municipal limit of Bengaluru City – a first of its kind in India.
